- due completion of the application and payment of the deposit;
- the date of presentation of the application;
- the space available.

The Organizers shall also try, as far as possible and within the limits of availability, and without prejudice to its freedom of choice and the absence of any and all obligation to provide justification, to accommodate the preferences expressed by applicants, but without disregarding the general benefit of the Exhibition on that account; the Organizers reserve the right to change or modify the exhibition space assigned. The participants must observe all safety regulations in force, none excepted. They explicitly relieve the Organizers from all liability with regard to third parties and shall in any case be liable for any damages caused by the non-observance of themselves or of their employees/appointees of the safety regulations, imprudent or improper use of machinery, materials and equipment ensuing to themselves, to the Organizers and to third parties.

10. Installation

During the days allocated for installation and dismantling of the stands within the halls, it is strictly forbidden to use any machinery which produces dust, without provision of suitable dust-extraction devices.

The display of any sort of machinery is strictly forbidden.

The Organizers provide stand installation, wall-to-wall floor covering in moquette and a lighted grid ceiling. This ceiling must in no circumstances be altered, manipulated or removed by the exhibitors, nor may it be used as a support for posters, graphic displays or similar purposes. Furthermore, work involving the regulation of the lighting installed on this ceiling and work involving the installation of electrical conductors may only be carried out by the exhibition Organizers' staff. Exhibitors, stand builders and connected personnel violating this regulation are liable for all damages caused.

In exceptional cases, in view of special requirements for product display, the possibility of allowing the use of display components other than those provided by the Organizers will be considered. Requests for such exceptions should be sent to the Organizing Secretariat, to arrive by 1st July 2024, accompanied by a detailed drawing; these requests will be determined at the Organizers' sole discretion.

In no circumstances will any exceptions be allowed to the main or special parameters for the Exhibition, which are as follows:

The Organizers will also be able to arrange, directly or indirectly, for the production and distribution of other publications of various kinds, and reserve the right to use such publications to illustrate and advertise the Exhibition at any time and in any surroundings, in Italy or elsewhere.

12. Security

The Organizers will provide ordinary and general day and night security, while individual exhibitors will be responsible for protecting their own property.

Specifically, the security cover applies to the building as a whole, but does not include the individual stands. If individual exhibitors see the need for specific security for their stands, the Organizers can provide the names of authorized security companies on request so that the exhibitors can reach their own independent agreements therewith.

To the extent of their duties and within the above limits, the Organizers shall only be held liable in the case of gross negligence or willful misconduct, with the burden of proof falling fully on the exhibitor wishing to claim breach of contract.

13. Insurance

Insurance policies are responsibility of individual exhibitors.

14. Liability

The Organizers and the Pordenone Exhibition Centre accept no liability for losses of any kind whatsoever, and in particular shall not be responsible for loss of or damage to the objects exhibited or for loss or damage caused by others, save where grave negligence is proved against the Organizers, the Pordenone Exhibition Centre, or their appointees or of employees. Also in such cases, the burden of proof falls on the exhibitor wishing to claim breach of contract by the Organizers.

The participant will be liable to the Organizers for all damages to things exhibited, to equipment and to people directly or indirectly attributable to the participant, and shall also be liable for whatever the Organizers must pay as compensation and/or indemnity to any third party, without any exceptions or limitations, and, accordingly, undertakes to hold the Organizers harmless.

No posters concerning competitions or prizes offered by firms, organizations, or by daily, weekly or specialized publications, may be displayed within the exhibition spaces. Contravention of the above rules will lead to penalties in addition to exclusion from the Exhibition in future years.

16. Promotional activities

In addition to the obligation of compliance with legal and public safety requirements, promotional activities, distribution of advertising material etc., which may only be conducted within the promoter's own exhibition space, must be such as not to injure, damage, disturb or annoy the other exhibitors or the visitors.

17. Photography and reproductions

Stands and exhibited products may not be photographed, filmed, drawn or recorded in any way without the authorization of the exhibitors concerned and of the Organizing Secretariat. The Organizers cannot however be held liable for any contraventions by third parties.

No photographic or cinematographic equipment may be brought within the perimeter of the Exhibition without the Organizing Secretariat's written permission. A copy of every authorized record must be supplied to the Organizing Secretariat.

20. The Organizers' option to suspend the contract

Should the applicant seriously breach the terms of this General Regulation and any similarly mandatory amendments or integrations thereto, the Organizers have the right to suspend the contract without prior notice, expelling any non-compliant exhibitors from the Exhibition. In such case, the exhibitor shall have no right to reimbursement or indemnity of any kind.

21. Force majeure

In the event of force majeure or, in any case, for reasons not due to the Organizers, the date of the Exhibition may change or the Exhibition itself may even be cancelled. Should the Exhibition be postponed for one of such reasons, the Organizers will not be liable to pay indemnity and/or damages to the exhibitors.

The postponement of the Exhibition shall not lead to termination due to supervening impossibility, unless it is postponed by more than twenty-four months from the date originally set. In this regard, by signing this document, the exhibitor declares their enduring interest in taking part in the Exhibition within the mentioned twenty-four term.

Should the Exhibition be cancelled or postponed by more than twenty-four months for one of the above reasons, this contract shall be considered rescinded due to supervening impossibility and the Organizers shall refund any fees received from the exhibitors, deducted pro quota the expenses that the Organizer incurred into and which remained at his expense.

22. Complaints

Any complaints must be made in writing not later than eight (8) days from the discovery of an alleged deficiency or defect(s), and at all events within 8 days of the end of the event.

23. Waiver to ruling jurisdiction

The Court of Milan shall have sole jurisdiction and venue over any controversy, with any and all other concurrent Courts excluded, and the Italian text of the General Regulations shall be authoritative.
